

DUHS Education Council

Preceptor And Charge Nurse Education Requirements

DUHS Nursing is committed to providing frontline leadership with the support required to be successful as a Preceptor and Charge Nurse. Educational sessions have been developed to orient new and new to Duke nurses to these roles. The following classes are required for premium pay and advancement on the clinical ladder.

For New and New To Duke Charge Nurses
Attend

“Basics Of Communication”
And
“ The Effective Charge Nurse”

For New and New To Duke Preceptors
Attend

“Basics Of Communication”
And
“Being The Best As A Preceptor”

Note:

“Being The Best As A Preceptor” has 3 on-line prerequisite modules in SWANK

Adult Learning ♦ Novice to Expert ♦ Reality Shock

All classes are provided by DUHS Education Services.
Classes offerings alternate each month.

Your unit may require additional training

Contact
Your CNE
For
Additional Questions
Or
Learning Activities

Preceptor and Communication
Class

In July
September
November
January
March
May

Charge Nurse Class

In August
October
December
February
April
June

Duke Medicine

Clinical Education and Professional Development

For class dates see
<http://edservices.mc.duke.edu/>